

Introduction: Have you had the _____ talk?

WHY??

1. _____ issues cause 50% of all divorces.
2. _____ will direct the course of their hearts, priorities, and affections.
3. _____ is the #1 competitor for their souls.
4. _____ problems are the root of greed, envy, debt, workaholism, pride, conflict, anger, guilt, and lack of contentment and peace.

Teach them to _____ their money.

A theology of stewardship:

- God owns _____ . Psalm 50:12
- God has entrusted His things - time, talent, _____ - to us to manage for Him. Matthew 25:14-30
- God expects a _____ return on His investment. Matthew 25:26-28
- God will hold them _____ . 2 Corinthians 5:6-10
- God wants them to share in His _____ . Matthew 15:21
- Old Testament roots Genesis 1:26-28, Job 1:20-21
- Biblical profiles – Nehemiah, Barnabas
- New Testament command Luke 16:11-15

"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much."

Luke 16:10 (NIV)

Priceless: Learning to manage _____ money

How to become faithful in the "little" (material) things:

1. Help them recognize the three purposes of money are _____, saving, and spending.

1Timothy 6:17-19

2. Teach them to commit to honor God with _____ of every paycheck to remind them that it's _____ money, not their own.

Proverbs 3:9-10

3. Encourage them to make time with _____ their #1 priority so they'll know how to invest the time, talent, and treasure entrusted to them.

Mark 1:35

➤ Life Message: Your life is a _____ stewardship!

Discussion Questions:

1. Which of the last two messages "hit home" the most with you? How will you share what you've learned with your children and grandchildren?
2. What midcourse changes do you need to make in your attitude toward work? Money? What are they? How about your children and grandchildren?
3. What specific action steps of faith do you sense God is leading you toward in response to His Word? How will you pass this on to your children and grandchildren?
4. Who might help you recognize or re-evaluate your own time, talent, and treasure? What resources might you use?

Recommended Resources:

Crown Financial Ministries
Financial Peace University

www.crown.org
www.daveramsey.com/fpu