

Introduction:

1. Thesis:

God specializes in using ordinary people to do extraordinary things!

2. Restatement:

Our “limitations” are not prohibitors to God using our lives, but the very platform on which He chooses to display His grace.

3. Condition:

But something has to happen to ordinary people if God is going to use them to do extraordinary things. In fact, God’s primary agenda for each of our lives centers around this one simple, but profound thing happening in each of our lives.

This one thing is not dependent on...

- Our intelligence
- Our education
- Our giftedness
- Our background
- Our wealth
- Our personality

- This one thing is available to every believer of every age without partiality.
- This one thing is what separates religious people from those who revolutionize the world.
- This one thing can transform the most mundane and ordinary of our world into those who shape and make history.
- This one thing is what God commends and values most in His people.
- This one thing is what brings pleasure to the heart of God 100% of the time.
- This one thing is always rewarded by God.
- This one thing is the basis upon which God evaluates your life at any given moment, in any given circumstance, in any given situation.
- This one thing is what God is “seeking and developing” to grow in your life above all else.

What is this one thing?

The Answer: _____!

Hebrews 10:32-39 (NIV)

³² Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you endured in a great conflict full of suffering. ³³ Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated. ³⁴ You suffered along with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions. ³⁵ So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. ³⁶ You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what He has promised. ³⁷ For, “In just a little while, He who is coming will come and will not delay.” ³⁸ And, “But my righteous One will live by faith. And I take no pleasure in the one who shrinks back.” ³⁹ But we do not belong to those who shrink back and are destroyed, but to those who have faith and are saved.

Hebrews 11:1-8 (NIV)

¹ Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. ² This is what the ancients were commended for. ³ By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible. ⁴ By faith Abel brought God a better offering than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead. ⁵ By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death: "He could not be found, because God had taken him away." For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. ⁶ And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him. ⁷ By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that is in keeping with faith. ⁸ By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.
